Decisions taken:

The members reviewed the minutes of the previous meeting and necessary actions were taken.

1. Motivate students to utilize Scholarships/special facilities

The members suggested that the students should actively participate in academics, sports and extra circular activities. Below mentioned points were discussed:

- To work with their Peers to increase their participation in activities
- To Work on emerging technologies
- Make them connect to the real world when they perform assignments, projects etc.
- Let them do what they love.

2. Conduct an Anti-ragging awareness program

The committee was formed before the arrival of the freshers and all the faculty will be involved in Anti-ragging duty from the first day of the class work. The members followed the schedule of anti-ragging duties and these duties would continue until the Fresher's day party. As part of this program students are educated on how evil it is if they go with ragging.

3. Provide book facilities to the students

Students are provided with books which make them educative, informative, and knowledgeable and enhance their skills in every walk of lives. The committee decided to prepare a list of books and forwarded to the approval of Principal for enhancement of knowledge of the students. Besides this, they expressed their strong-willingness to provide more video and audio CDs for better learning as students would benefit from reading a variety of books.

4. Mentor the students

Students were regularly counselled for the following problems and tried to assist and guide them to get rid of various issues faced by them such as:

- Various types of anxieties: Social, general, test anxiety, or panic attacks.
- Family expectations or problems
- Depression
- lack of energy or motivation
- hopelessness
- being overwhelmed
- low self-esteem
- homesickness
- loneliness
- time management &
- Health issues

5. Student grievances

The chairman enquired about the concerns/complaints of the students from the Coordinator. The coordinator confirmed that there have been no complaints from students, so the chairman is grateful for the members' efforts on behalf of SC/ST students.

6. Any other matter with the permission of the chair
